

The Techno Tourist Announce Official Partnership with Top-Rated Decibel Festival

New York-based, music-laced lifestyle brand The Techno Tourist is pleased to announce its new title as an official travel partner of Seattle's Decibel Festival.

"We are thrilled to work in collaboration with Decibel Festival for its 10th Anniversary Edition," says The Techno Tourist CEO/President Mike LaGrotta. "It will be amazing to send our clients to the Pacific Northwest, especially to a festival consistently recognized as one of the top in the world."

Ken Taylor of Beatport, the largest music store for DJs in the world, rated Decibel Festival #8 of The 20 Most-Anticipated Dance-Music Festivals of 2013. EDM content platform inthemix recently dubbed Decibel Festival #11 of 25 in the article, "25 Festivals to Discover Before You Die."

"The after-dark events are spread around the city's concert halls and clubs, with too much for any one mere mortal to take in. Just as Sonar takes over Barcelona each June, Decibel fills all corners of Seattle with electronic music."

In addition to the music, Decibel Festival has developed a reputation for showcasing cutting-edge multimedia art from around the world with live performances and interactive technology. The Decibel International Festival of Electronic Music Performance, Visual Art and New Media will take place in various venues around the city from September 25-29.

The Techno Tourist, a globally recognized brand with employees residing in New York City and London, are dedicated to sending both industry professionals and festival lovers to events like Decibel Festival with a bespoke travel itinerary and luxury accommodation. What originally started as a boutique travel agency has grown into a life-style, one that champions food, art, architecture, and more importantly—great music.
